

27

A line drawing of a staircase with a railing. The railing consists of a handrail supported by vertical balusters. The staircase has several steps and is shown from a side-on perspective. The drawing is simple and schematic, focusing on the basic structure of the stairs and railing.